6451 Highway 34 West – Albia, Iowa

As we have watched our country honor soldiers like the true heroes that they are, it has stirred a great deal of emotion. It appears that our country has realized what we owe our soldiers. It is the desire of the Welcome Home Soldier Committee to build and maintain a monument that will honor our nations' veterans – past, present, and future.

Located in the nation's heartland, this monument will honor all veterans from anywhere in the United States. Monroe County (Albia, Iowa) has generously donated 7 acres of land on Highway 34 (named after the 34th Infantry) just west of the city limits. This is an honored place in the heart of Iowa, where all soldiers – living and deceased – can be at home with their comrades. It is a fitting home for this special kind of monument from a grateful nation.

Welcome Home Soldier was organized by veterans. It is led by a board of veterans, supported by a diverse advisory board, and has enlisted dedicated volunteers to ensure the success of the monument.

Memorializing both living and deceased active duty peacetime and wartime honorably discharged veterans; this monument will showcase their service to their country and be a model of honor for future generations.
